Appslinq™

Knowledge at your fingertips

Problem resolution & staff confidence even in difficult exams leading to enhanced productivity & reputation. Appslinq™ is a support and training service which:

- Drives application knowledge to your teams at their own adapted speed and schedule.
- Allows you to have easy access to quick support.
- Offers a convenient and effective way to be trained, providing the ability to prepare for and be accompanied specifically during difficult exams.

- Receive on-screen clinical expert support and training over the phone or through your equipment console or Advantage Workstations. Our remote experts can help you solve procedural or processing issues in real time - as you encounter them.
- Clinical experts see exactly what you see on your screen and can guide you personally showing you how to navigate the imaging system faster and more efficiently. Together, you will discover a new space of knowledge - your space.
- Appslinq™ entitles you to training lessons on your own terms and schedule. Learning session's at the most convenient time - your time.
- Appslinq™ was developed for you - to help improve your skills and allow you to handle whatever comes your way.

A world of knowledge perpetually renewed - it is meant for you - to be empowered.

Your space
